We are into the late innings of this year's raffle. This weekend we have three events covering Friday and Saturday. Because we got rained out of Shirlington last weekend, I have organized a "Shirlington Double Header" with events both Friday and Saturday nights. Amy O'Malley is planning an "Invasion" of Shirlington to drum up sales and show BXRC's support of the local merchants. Also, Saturday has a return to Katie's after a week off. Below is the information on where we will be this weekend and the link to sign up.

Friday, 4 August
